

THE LAURA TABER BARBOUR AIR SAFETY AWARD

ON-LINE SUBMISSION PERMITTED AFTER REVIEW/ENDORSEMENTS AND NASC APPROVAL

http://www.flightsafety.org/ltb_award.html

This award recognizes notable achievement in the field of aviation safety – civil or military – in method, design, invention, study or other improvement. The award's recipient is selected for a "significant or group effort contributing to improving aviation safety, with emphasis on original contributions," and a "significant individual or group effort performed above and beyond normal responsibilities." The award was established in 1956 by the late Clifford E. Barbour and his son, Clifford E. Barbour Jr., in memory of the elder Barbour's wife, a passenger on a DC-3 that struck a mountain near Morgantown, West Virginia, U.S., on April 14, 1945. All 20 people in the airplane were killed. The Barbour family used the insurance settlement to institute the award, which includes $500 and a handsome, wood-framed, hand-lettered citation.

The nominating deadline is in May 2005; the award is presented at the FSF International Air Safety Seminar \(IASS\). NOTE: NAVAIR's deadline is 31 March 2005.
